JEMEZ PUEBLO, NM- This Memorial Day Weekend marks the 28th year of the Annual Jemez Red Rocks Arts and Crafts Show. This event is a time-honored tradition that brings hundreds of people to the Jemez Pueblo Red Rocks to celebrate and honor the brave few that have died while serving in the United States Military with Authentic Native American Art, Food, and Dance.

Native American artisans, from many different nations, will display their amazing art to the visiting public, which will be available for purchase during this 3-day event. There will also be Authentic Native foods sold at nearby roadside booths. Local dance groups and performers will entertain us while we enjoy the beautiful art, people, and scenery.

The Jemez Arts and Crafts Association aims to help local Jemez artists, as well as artists from other Indigenous communities. We want to provide venues and events like the annual Jemez Red Rocks Arts and Crafts Show to sell their artwork so they can provide for themselves and their families.

CALL TO ARTISTS-- We invite all Native American artists who would like to sell their artwork to apply for a space as soon as possible. We offer low prices for a 3-day event, so apply soon. Booth Prices: Early Bird price is $125 before March 31st and $150 after that. Deadline to pay for a booth is April 30th. There is an additional $50 charge if you want to share with another artist. Price is for all 3 days. You will need to bring your own canopies, tables and chairs. Applications are available online at www.jemezartsandcrafts.com, or call or email us and we can send you one.
